Re: United States vs. Juan C. Tenorio and Charlene F. Tenorio,
CR 07-00078, District Court of Guam

Dear Judge Tydinge-Gatewood:

I have known Charlene Tenorio since September, 2004. Our relationship began when my daughters and I started horseback riding at her ranch. I worked and rode at the ranch at least four days each week until we moved in June, 2006. Charlene is a very responsible horse owner and all of her animals are well cared for. Charlene was always fair and honest in all of our transactions.

As we got to know each other better, I learned that Charlene is a devout Catholic. As I became involved with some projects to help Catholic Charities Women and Children's shelter, Charlene enthusiastically pitched in with donations and advice.

Charlene has been of great service to Guam in her efforts to help rescue the neglected horses on the island. She has put a lot of money and effort into the welfare of these animals.

I know Charlene to be a person of good character who makes decisions based on what is right, not what is easy.

Sincerely,

Vivian B. Smith
